THE BRUSSELS ANIMATION
FILM FESTIVAL

9 > 18 FEB. 2018

BRUSSELS, Flagey

ANIMA 2018: JUNIORS' CORNER

Once again, Flagey's epicentre will be changing into a little paradise for the kids during the carnival vacation with entertainment (in collaboration with Ouffivi), makeup stands and the much talked about ANIMA pancakes!

The little ones are going to be spoilt yet again during this holiday period with a great programme dedicated to a number of activities including animation workshops for the 5 to 12 year-olds organized every afternoon. These workshops are the perfect opportunity to cross over to the other side of the camera and find out how their favourite films are made. This is certainly a magical experience and something they will remember for years to come! The animation workshops take place every afternoon at three different time slots. They are completely free but reservation is required beforehand.

Teens from 12 to 16 will be able to take part in a 5-day workshop, in English, hosted by Japanese animation filmmaker Maya Yonesho. The goal of the project will be to make an animated film together on the topic of Belgian specialities, shot around Brussels and edited at Flagey.

The Festival is also organizing screenings specifically reserved for a young audience: repeats of the year's best films, along with a number of new films and sneak peeks.

School screenings: before the Festival, Anima is presenting 3 screening sessions exclusively reserved to schools from the 7th to 9th February, at 10:00 am.

"Animatins": These are Anima 2018 screenings that will take place at 10:00 am, at Flagey. They are open to the whole family along with attractive rates to play groups and associations.
